

Office of the Governor

---

NC Regional Military Summits

4 Nov 2011
Fayetteville

Background

- The primary focus of the regional summits was to examine the impact of the military and defense community on local economic development in the following subsets:
  - Economic Development
  - Infrastructure
  - Land Use Compatibility (encroachment)
  - Military Family Quality of Life

Summit Top 10 Issues

- Critical importance of the Joint Strike Fighter
- Critical importance of Fleet Readiness Center-East
- Requirement for a clear state land use strategy
- Transportation and related infrastructure concerns
  - Roads, Rail, Air & Sea Ports
  - Supply Chain
  - Maintenance
  - Defense Logistics Initiative
- Workforce Development/Transitioning Military

Summit Top 10 Issues

- Education (Pre-K, K-12, CC System, UNC)
- Future reductions/downsizing
- Special Operations Community Growth
- Veterans, retirees
- Health care shortages:
  - Primary Care
  - Dentists
  - Behavioral Health Specialists

NC Defense Council for Econ. Dev

The North Carolina Defense Council for Economic Development (NCDCED) integrates a network of public, private and academic stakeholders who share the common goal of growing military and defense industry jobs and investment in order to increase collaboration, communication and teamwork while maximizing the economic development value of the state's military and defense assets.

NC Defense Council for Econ. Dev

- Partnerships X 7
- NCMBC
- NCDBA
- Military Foundation
- PDI/DSTA
- SBTDC
- Aerospace Alliance
- UNC – GA
- NC Comm. College Sys
- Commerce
- EDB
- Ft Bragg Reg. Alliance